

Violet Follows Mutt and Jeff, But "Bad Mans" Spoils All Her Work

Dutch Vs. the Irish in the Texas League

Some Texas Sporting Gossip.

By H. H. Shelton.

THERE is a warm argument on now in the Texas league baseball circles as to whether the Dutch can beat the Irish. That is an old question but always an interesting one. Two full teams, one of each nationality, could be selected from the men who played in the Texas league this season. It is suggested that Heine Maag of Dallas captain the Dutch and Jimmie Maloney, also of Dallas, be in charge of the destinies of the "Micks."

The line-up of the Dutch club would be as follows: Catcher, Noyes; pitcher, Heine Maag; first base, Maag; second base, Casey; third base, McDonald; shortstop, Noyes; left field, Eberlein; center field, Stinson; right field, Thielman.

The line-up of the Irish would be as follows: Catcher, Gribbens; pitcher, McKay and Burke; first base, Gowdy; second base, Casey; third base, McDonald; shortstop, Noyes; left field, Eberlein; center field, Stinson; right field, Thielman.

As the two teams stack up in view of past performances it looks as if the Irish ought to have a little the best of the argument.

Dallas Boy Stars in Football.

Fred P. Davis, of Dallas, is one of the most promising men of the A. & M. football squad for the coming season. He is considered by Charlie Moran, coach of the team, as one of the most promising half backs in the south. Davis weighed 180 pounds and can run 100 yards in 16.4 seconds. He is a year old and showed little last year in the games he played with the Longhorns.

Ball Players Are Going Home.

Nearly all the Texas ball players, except the few who report to big league companies this year, are on their way home. A number of them are so much delighted with Texas they will spend the winter in the state, taking part in games with independent clubs to keep in form. It has become a habit for the managers to be paid a salary all the year round. The winter is spent by them in scouting around and planning for the next year. All of them will have to be paid for much new material is needed. There is considerable competition on as to who will land a number of fast men.

Texas Players With St. Louis.

The season has sufficiently advanced for critics to pass a final judgment on the merits of the Texas players with the St. Louis Browns of the American league. As that team has been very appropriately designated "the Texas" team of the American league on account of the large number of Texas players in the organization, much interest attached to its success. Pat Newman is a fixture. There seems little chance of any one replacing him at first base during the next year. His record has been good from the first game and he has been improving since he got used to the rudeness of the other stars with whom he is associated. The showing made by Bill Bailey, the port side twirler, has been so poor his Texas friends have to look over the averages. Just why St. Louis has him on is a question. He is young and there may be hope. Truesdale, who was to have come to Houston, has done so well he seems a fixture on second base. Griggs has shaken off the rustiness and has recently been doing much better work. If he will do his best there is no reason why he should be sent back to the brush. "Dode" Criss, pitcher who will go to the big league by draft. All other men who were drafted had already been sold.

Walter Morris, owner of the Fort Worth team, will spend the winter selling real estate to the northern investors. In that line he has been a great success.

Joe Gardner is certainly getting busy for next year. He has already signed up 12 men for 1911, including two first basemen, a third baseman, two catchers, five pitchers and two outfielders.

Pitcher Dale, of Dallas, is the only player who will go to the big league by draft. All other men who were drafted had already been sold.

Walter Morris, who was detained in Fort Worth on business, has rejoined the Panthers and will be in today's final game.

Try filling your orders here for feed, flour and seeds of all kinds and see how profitable it will be for you. A large stock of popular brands to select from—something for every requirement. Once you start trading with us, you will become a permanent customer.

O. G. Seeton & Son
Third and Chihuahua Sts.

AL KAUFMAN WINS EASILY FROM LANG

Little That Was Spectacular in the Fight Held in the Baseball Park.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 6.—In a one-sided go of six rounds, Al Kaufman, California heavyweight, had all the best of Bill Lang, the Australian heavy, before nearly 8000 persons at Philadelphia last night. Only in the second round did Lang show class or form.

It was nearly 10 o'clock before the men climbed into the ring. The six rounds were enough for the Californian to show his superiority over the Australian. The ring was quit with Kaufman clean, while his opponent's face was swollen and a cut between his eyes, where a right landed.

There was little spectacular in the fight. From the second round, Lang clinched continually, leading first with his left and then hugging. In the fifth Kaufman drove his man to the ropes, and another hug avoided a probable knockout. Kaufman appeared 20 pounds heavier than Lang, but the men fought in the pink. Billy Delaney officiated in Kaufman's corner, while Kid McCoy tended Lang.

The baseball park was well lighted by arc lamps, the ring being built between the home plate and the pitcher's box. Among the spectators were many women. The fight was at catch weights for a percentage of the gate house.

The battle by rounds follows:

Fight by Rounds.

Round 1—Lang led with a right left to the face and they went to a clinch. Lang refused to break and Kaufman uppercuted with a right at close quarters. Kaufman again sent a straight left to Lang's face which drove the Australian's head back.

Round 2—Lang landed a left to the head and they came to a clinch. Kaufman drove a left to Lang's mouth and the latter missed with a right swing as the gong sounded. Kaufman's round.

Round 3—Lang led with a left to the head and they came to a clinch. Kaufman drove a left to Lang's mouth and the latter missed with a right swing as the gong sounded. Kaufman's round.

Round 4—They rushed to a clinch without striking a blow. On the breakaway Kaufman sent a left to the face. Lang missed with a left and Kaufman sent his face back with a hard round. Kaufman drove a hard right to the jaw which staggered Lang. The latter held on. Kaufman had cut a nasty gash on Lang's head, bringing the blood. Kaufman sent a hard right to the jaw and Lang was in apparent distress. They were clinched at the bell. Kaufman's round by a large margin.

Round 5—Kaufman led a light left and Lang countered with a similar left to the jaw which staggered Lang. The latter held on. Kaufman had cut a nasty gash on Lang's head, bringing the blood. Kaufman sent a hard right to the jaw and Lang was in apparent distress. They were clinched at the bell. Kaufman's round by a large margin.

Round 6—The men rushed to a clinch. In the breakaway Lang tried a left to the face but missed. Kaufman sent a hard right and left to the jaw. He repeated the blow a second later and Lang was staggered by the force of the blow. Kaufman sent a left to the jaw and they rushed to a clinch. Kaufman sent right and left to the head and they came to a clinch. Kaufman uppercuted with his knees. Kaufman uppercuted with his right to the face and Lang clinched. Kaufman wins by popular decision.

CLIFTON WINS FROM MORENCI

Takes Second Labor Day Game, After Losing the Morning Game.

Clifton evened up the Labor day series by laboring on Feherman and Parks, the Morenci pitchers, for a total of 15 hits and 14 runs in the afternoon game of the double header.

After losing to Morenci three to two in the morning, Clifton came back in the afternoon series, getting 14 to Morenci's five. McCleary was the hero of the local fans after the game Monday.

He scored Morenci's series this week. A part of which were made by the four errors made by the Clifton club.

Score. R. H. E.
Clifton.....14 15 4
Morenci.....5 2 2

Batteries: For Clifton, McCleary and Woods; for Morenci, Feherman, Parks and Mason.

PITCHER TO THE EL PASO TEAM

El Paso's crippled pitching staff is to be strengthened, McKay, of the Fort Worth club of the Texas league, will arrive here in time for the Douglas-El Paso exhibition series this week.

Owing to the fact that both Runney and Anderson are laid up, the game which was scheduled for Tuesday afternoon was postponed until Wednesday afternoon.

The regular games Saturday and Sunday.

BISBEE HAS COME BACK INTO GAME

Bisbee, Ariz., Sept. 6.—Bisbee has come back. In spite of the awful kicking given that club in El Paso, Bisbee defeated Cananea again Monday, making two straight for the Maroons of the Warren district. The score against the Sonora sons was three to one and the reinforced team that now wears the maroon suits is again the idol of the local fando.

The Box Score.

El Paso.....AB R H PO A E
Bisbee.....4 0 1 1 1 1
Ketchum.....2 0 0 2 0 0
Gray, 1b.....5 1 1 1 1 0
Wolfe, c.....3 2 3 1 1 1
Partman, 2b.....0 2 4 5 1 1
Brown, 1f.....3 0 1 2 1 1

KANE WINS THE GAME FOR THE VISITORS

El Paso's "Phenom," Anderson, Just Out of Hospital, "Falls Down."

Yet they say horseshoe Harry Kane is not lucky. The unanimous opinion of the house is that he is that and more. He is lucky to the extent of having a team that plays behind him like the bunch of demons that they are. He is lucky in being able to mix up his offerings so that he can outguess the other fellows and then he is "yes natcherly lucky," as the playing manager of the Leland Giants (b) would say.

In looking around for the flinks that beat El Paso, one need not look further than the center of the stage where one spaghetti legged individual was working about three times as hard as any other member of either club and thinking twice as fast. It has become a well established baseball axiom that Douglas plus Kane equals El Paso minus victory. With but nine hits off of Andy Anderson, who got out of a hospital bed to pitch the game in response to the repeated and insistent demands of the fans, Douglas played the most sensational fielding game against the Mavericks and won as such work deserved to win, by the score of 8 to 2.

Anderson Was Ill.

The much touted pitcher's battle between Kane and Anderson did not come off as per small bills. Kane was there, going as good as even after his first inning, but Anderson was not. The local pride was as much himself in the box as was his shadow which fell on the mound where he worked. Andy was all in before he went into the game. He had had no opportunity to work, had just left the hospital after an operation and had nothing as of old when he broke them over the plate to the consternation of the opposition and intense satisfaction of the home town contingent.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Douglas Is Gingers.

Douglas started out with a display of pepper that was good for two runs in the very first inning. They annexed five more in the third, and one in the sixth, which completed their total for that day's game. Harper got on by grace of Andy's wildness and first strike not having his hitting wand with him at the present writing. Mills, always good for a safe one when a safe one is needed, hit for a single and sent Harper to third. Mills took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper. Hewitt started the ascension in the third by letting Mathewson's easy chance roll through his legs and into the state of Texas. Hank took second on a throw from the pitcher and the ball for two bases, scoring both Mills and Harper.

Only at times did Anderson show a flash of his old self. In the second, after he had got over his initial lining wildness, he looked good to go the distance in spite of the handicap under which he was laboring. He struck out Carlson, Ward and Kane, each one of the three strikes on the latter being called, and the captain of the Douglas club red in complete disgust. But it was not the Andy of old that was working and, after the sixth inning, he was unable to do more than keep going. There is no occasion to excuse Anderson's show on his physical condition does that for him. He can beat Kane the best day the Arizona ever saw if he is himself and has the club behind him.

Hewitt, 3b.....2 0 0 0 2 1
Wright, rf.....4 0 1 0 0 0
Anderson, p.....0 1 0 0 0 0
Deakins, cf.....0 0 0 0 0 0
Carlson, 2b.....1 0 0 0 0 0
Kane, p.....1 0 0 0 0 0

Totals.....34 9 27 17 5
x Batted for Deakins in the 9th.

AB R H PO A E

Smith, ss.....3 1 1 2 4 1
Harper, cf.....3 1 0 2 0 0
Mills, 1f.....4 1 1 1 0 0
Gwynn, 1b.....5 0 1 10 0 0
Mathewson, rf.....4 1 2 1 0 0
Powell, c.....4 1 2 1 0 0
Carlson, 2b.....4 1 1 1 0 0
Ward, 2b.....4 2 1 3 0 1
Kane, p.....4 1 1 0 0 0

Totals.....35 8 27 11 3

El Paso.....12 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Runs.....0 0 0 1 0 1 0 1 0-3

Hits.....1 0 0 2 1 1 1 0-9

Douglas.....2 0 0 5 0 1 0 0-8

Runs.....2 0 0 3 1 1 1 0-9

Three base hits—Gray, Smith Mathewson.

Two base hits—Wolfe, Gwynn.

Sacrifice hit—Powell.

Sacrifice fly—Wolfe, Brown, Smith.

Harper.

Struck out by Anderson 4, by Kane 2.

Base on balls—Off Anderson 3; off Kane 0.

Hit by pitcher—By Kane (Plick, Hewitt, Ketchum).

Left on bases—El Paso, 9; Douglas, 4.

Time—Two hours.

Umpire—Toman.

*****

STATISTICAL DOPE.

(By Art Woods.)

*****

WHERE THEY PLAY WEDNESDAY.

National.

Cincinnati at Chicago.

Boston at New York.

Philadelphia at Philadelphia.

St. Louis at Pittsburgh.

American.

Detroit at Cleveland.

Philadelphia at Boston.

New York at Washington.

Chicago at St. Louis.

Cactus.

Douglas at El Paso.

*****

HOW THEY STAND.

National.

Played. Won. Lost. Pct.

Chicago.....119 81 38 .681

Pittsburgh.....122 75 49 .599

New York.....120 68 52 .567

Philadelphia.....122 63 60 .512

Cincinnati.....126 64 62 .508

St. Louis.....121 48 73 .396

Brooklyn.....121 48 73 .396

Boston.....126 44 82 .349

American.

Played. Won. Lost. Pct.

Philadelphia.....124 85 39 .685

Boston.....124 73 51 .588

New York.....123 71 52 .577

Detroit.....125 71 54 .568

Washington.....128 55 70 .453

Cleveland.....123 54 69 .439

Chicago.....121 47 74 .388

St. Louis.....122 36 86 .295

Cactus.

Played. Won. Lost. Pct.

Dallas.....140 82 57 .592

Houston.....140 82 58 .584

Fort Worth.....138 75 63 .543

San Antonio.....125 74 52 .588

Galveston.....140 75 65 .532

Oklahoma City.....129 64 75 .460

Waco.....137 38 99 .277

*****

AMATEUR BASEBALL.

Batteries: Demons, Hill and Lomax;